The following is the schedule of performances for the 2010-2011 Seton Bands. You are responsible for being present at each of these performances. Mark the dates on your calendar at home and post this as a reminder. I will be providing details of each event two weeks prior to the dates listed below. Throughout the year we often receive other performance opportunities. Should these arise, I will provide you with any information necessary in a timely fashion.

Brad Curran, Band Director
