For the week of November 14-November 18

- Child of the Week this week was Genna. Genna and her mom shared a beautiful music box with the Noah's Ark creatures, we then colored and found our partner animal from the ark. Lots of fun!
- Our letter this week was Ii. We met Mr. I who measures with inches. There are not that many words that start with Ii so we talked about I in the middle. So far we have introduced the vowels o, a, i. The sounds are tricky for some. For additional practice with letter sounds and blending you can use the following website at home.

- Our red word this week was see. Please keep practicing reading, spelling and writing the following words: and, all, of, for, see, the, is, to, like, my.
- In math this week we talked about number partners, two numbers that you can add together to make a number. 2 and 3 make 5 and 3 and 2 make 5.
- Friday folders are very full. Please look for the make a teen book that we worked on this week. Teens always have one group of ten!
- This week we read, Inch by Inch, Bella Lost her Moo and 12 Ways to get to 11.
- In religion we talked about Jesus welcoming the children and made a "Welcome" door hanger.
- We do not have library next week but when we return the following Monday, November 28th we will have library.
